Proclamation

WHEREAS, in the United States, gun violence is a national concern and is a major health crisis; firearm-related injuries is the second leading cause of death for American children and teens; every day an average of seven children under the age of 19 are killed by gun violence; and

WHEREAS, every day, more than 100 Americans are killed by gun violence and on average, there are almost 13,000 gun homicides annually; the lives of countless others are injured, and Americans are 25 times more likely to be murdered with guns than people in other developed countries; and

WHEREAS, support of the Second Amendment rights of law-abiding citizens goes hand-in-hand with keeping guns away from dangerous people; and

WHEREAS, in January 2013, Hadiya Pendleton, a teenager who performed during President Obama's second inaugural parade, was tragically shot and killed just one week later. On June 2nd, she would have celebrated her 25th birthday; and

WHEREAS, National Gun Violence Awareness Day is observed on the first Friday of June, was first celebrated in June 2015 in Hadiya's honor and in honor of the hundreds of Americans whose lives are cut short as well as the countless survivors who are injured by shootings every; and

WHEREAS, the idea was inspired by a group of Hadiya's friends, who asked their classmates to commemorate her life by wearing the color orange; choosing this color because hunters wear orange to announce themselves to other hunters when out in the woods; orange is a color that symbolizes the value of human life; and

WHEREAS, communities across Orange County continue to mourn the victims of second deadliest mass shooting in the U.S. that occurred at Robb Elementary School in Uvalde, Texas. As a result of the massacre, 21 lives were cut short, 19 children and 2 teachers, with 17 others injured; and

WHEREAS, the consequences of gun violence are more pervasive and affect entire communities, families, and children; and
