

P CITY OF COSTA MESA, CALIFORNIA roclamation

WHEREAS, the vitality of the City of Costa Mesa depends on how safe we keep our homes, neighborhoods, schools, workplaces, and communities; and

WHEREAS, crime destroys our trust in others and in civic institutions, threatening the community's health, prosperity, and quality of life; and

WHEREAS, people of all ages must be made aware of what they can do to prevent themselves and their families, neighbors, and coworkers from being harmed by crime; and

WHEREAS, residents and the Costa Mesa Police Department work together to establish Neighborhood Watch Programs, currently 31 groups, around the city to effectively reduce crime in their neighborhoods; and

WHEREAS, through voluntary programs such as Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design and reporting suspicious activity to police, residents empower greater vigilance and oversight in their neighborhoods; and

WHEREAS, successful crime prevention involves more than vigilance and caution, the Costa Mesa Police Department partners with residents in meaningful ways including: promoting and hosting community events such as Coffee with a Cop, National Night Out, Catalytic Converter Etch Event in 2021, and a Christmas Shop with a Cop, hosting a Citizens' Police Academy and Teen Academy, staffing a Community Policing Unit with a Bike Patrol Detail that engages in community outreach to residents in need of resources, and a Gang Unit with two School Resource Officers in Costa Mesa's high schools, who conduct youth-specific outreach events to bridge gaps between at-risk youth and law enforcement; and

WHEREAS, effective crime prevention programs succeed because of partnerships with law enforcement, other government agencies, civic groups, schools, faith communities, businesses, and individuals as they help to nurture communal responsibility and instill pride.

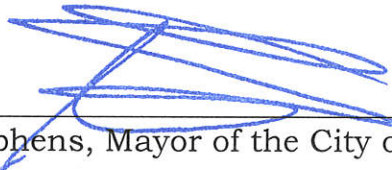

CITY OF COSTA MESA, CALIFORNIA

Proclamation

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John Stephens, Mayor of the City of Costa Mesa, do hereby proclaim the month of October 2022 as Crime Prevention Month. I urge all residents to invest in the power of prevention and work together to make the City of Costa Mesa a safer, stronger, more caring community.

DATED this 18th day of October 2022.

John B. Stephens, Mayor of the City of Costa Mesa
