UPDATE:

The Parks and Community Services Department prides itself on the quality programs it offers year-round, this includes programs and services offered at the Costa Mesa Senior Center. Senior Center programs include recreational and enrichment classes, special events, health expos, transportation services and meal programs. The center also offers a variety of social services through our recently approved full-time community outreach worker.

The Costa Mesa Senior Center offers free membership to adults age 50 and older is open Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. More information on the Costa Mesa Senior Center can be found online at www.costamesaca.gov/seniorcenter or by calling the center at (714) 327-7550.
